PLAN OF ORGANIZATION OF THE CONSERVATIVE PEOPLE OF NORTH CAROLINA.

STATE ORGANIZATION.

A State Committee, to consist of a chairman and thirty members—six of whom shall reside in Raleigh and three in each judicial district—to be appointed by the State Convention.

The committee shall have power to maintain its organization by filling vacancies, &c., and shall take charge of all matters relating to organization, registrations, &c., and a proper canvass of the State.

DISTRICT ORGANIZATION.

The members of the State Committee in each judicial district shall constitute a district Committee for their respective districts and shall appoint a Chairman, and shall take charge of all matters relating to county organization, &c., in their respective districts; and shall report all matters relating thereto, to the Chairman of the State Committee.

COUNTY ORGANIZATION.

It is recommended that each County, by popular meetings or through the medium of existing organization, appoint a County Committee, to consist of at least two persons from each Captain's District within its limits.

The County Committee shall take charge of all matters of registration, local organization, &c., within the County, and is requested to make monthly reports to the Chairman of the District Committee, and when necessary, to inform him of such local matters as may require the attention of the District Committee.

It is further recommended that each County Committee cause to be enrolled the names of all the registered voters of their county, who are willing to act and vote with this organization—no man to be thus enrolled without his express consent; and, also, that they cause to be enrolled on a separate list the names of all those who are entitled to register, but who have not done so, and that they use every exertion to secure their registration and active co-operation.

PLATFORM.

The Conservative people of North Carolina, having by their delegates assembled in Convention at Raleigh, on the 5th of February, 1868, to consider the present anomalous condition of the State, and of the country, and to consult together upon the grievances which now afflict and threaten them, and the course of action proper to be adopted in the trying circumstances which surround them, do resolve and declare

1. Our unalterable devotion to the principles of Constitutional liberty, and our fealty to the government of the United States, as set forth in the Federal Constitution. That we sincerely and in good faith accept the legitimate and legal results of the late war, and do hereby reiterate our oft repeated declaration, that we most heartily desire peace and concord with our sister States, and with the entire people of the United States.

2. Resolved, That regarding the Constitution of the United States as the source of all power in the administration of the government, and that the powers of the Executive, Legislative and Judicial department are equal and co-ordinate, as defined by that instrument, we do respectfully and solemnly protest against the enforcement upon our people, of the Reconstruction Acts, and policy of Congress, as unconstitutional, unwise and destructive to society, and violative of that great principle of American politics, that each State shall have the exclusive control of its own internal offices.

3. Resolved, That it is the opinion of this Convention that the great and all absorbing issue, now soon to be presented to the people of the State, is negro suffrage and negro equality, if not supremacy, and whether hereafter in North Carolina and the South, the white man is to be placed politically and, as a consequence, socially, upon a footing of equality with the negro, and, in many localities, subject to his government as a superior. That we are utterly opposed to such change in our government and in our social relations, and that we do hereby earnestly recommend to the people of the State to manfully meet the issue now attempted to be forced upon them, and to use every proper measure within their power to avert the impending mischief.

4. Resolved, That while we are unalterably opposed to political and social equality with the black race, we yet have no unjust prejudicies against that race, that we are determined, by just laws, to protect them fully in all their civil rights, and to confer upon them all privileges which can be done consistently with the safety and welfare of both races.

5. Resolved, That the distressed and impoverished condition of our people earnestly demands the speediest and wisest measures of relief that the Legislature can devise.

6. Resolved, That this Convention recognizes, with feelings of gratitude, the heroic and patriotic efforts of the President of the United States, to restore the Union and harmony and good will among the American people.

7. Resolved, That this Convention regards the Supreme Court of the United States as the legitimate expounder in the last resort of the Constitution—and believe that its rights and powers, in that respect, should be preserved intact as established by law in the earlier and better days of the republic, and that any serious impairment thereof, by legislation or otherwise, will be destructive to the best interests of the country, and dangerous to the liberties of the people.

8. Resolved, That despairing of any restoration of the Southern States under the conduct of that organization which now controls the proceedings of Congress, waiving all former party feeling and prejudice, this Convention does most unhesitatingly recommend and invite the hearty co-operation of all the good people of North Carolina with the Democrats, and Conservative men of the North and West, who are now nobly struggling for the maintenance of the Constitution of the United States, and the restoration of the Southern States to their rights in the Union, on the solid foundation of harmony and peace.

9. Resolved, That this Convention elect four delegates and four alternates for the State at large, to represent the conservative people of North Carolina in the next Democratic National Convention, and that it recommend to the conservative people of the several Congressional Districts, to appoint delegates at an early day to represent them in said Convention.

10. Resolved, That when an election shall be ordered for the ratification of a new State Constitution, the Executive Committee for the State, hereafter to be appointed by this Convention, be instructed, if the time shall be sufficient to call a Convention of the Conservative people of the State, to put in nomination candidates for the various State offices whose election shall then be ordered, and if there shall not be sufficient time to call said Convention, to put in nomination sound Conservative men for said office.

The North Carolinian.

"Breathes there a man with soul so dead,
Who never to himself hath said,
This is my own, my native land."

WM. A. HEARNE, JNO. W. DUNHAM,
EDITORS.

Raleigh, Sunday, February 23, 1868.

We are glad to know that the white men of North Carolina are thoroughly aroused to the importance of earnest work in the approaching campaign for liberty and virtue. We have published already the proceedings of several large, enthusiastic meetings in which gentlemen of irreproachable private characters and unquestioned intelligence have been participants. The character of the MEN who composed them, and the spirit manifested in all these meetings, augur well for the future of the Commonwealth. Her very best and ablest sons are aroused to the exigencies of the hour, and have declared their purpose to canvass every county, every district, and every neighborhood, in order to bring the entire strength of the white men of the State into the contest against the constitution.

The indications of our triumph are daily increasing in number and import. Men, who have been deluded into the Radical ranks, by a desire for a speedy issuance from our present surroundings, have been undeceived as to its purposes and powers, and are arraying themselves in unqualified opposition to its success.

The constitution in preparation by the impudent and intolerant body in session in this city, can, and must be, defeated. Truth, justice, a regard for the rights and privileges of free men, humanity and God require that we shall not relax our efforts until the work shall be most gloriously consummated. We are threatened with dangers, of whose horrors we have no conception.

The Radicals demand the absolute equality of the negro. They have shown their faith by their works—have reduced their theory into practice. They demand for him the privilege of the ballot, and have thrown open to him all the offices of the State. They threaten us with war and extermination, if, exercising a right granted us by the infamous acts of Congress by which he is temporarily invested with suffrage, we dare to follow our instincts and our consciences and refuse to accept him as our civil, political and social equal. Their threats are barren boasts, that will not have fulfillment.—The white men of North Carolina are not to be deterred from the performance of their duty by the bravado of clowns or the puerilities of fools. They have organized for victory, and they despise the puny menaces of these sooty soldiers of a "black" flag

The issue has become a matter of race. We did not make it, and we surely will not shrink from it. We cherish no hostility for the negro. We would gladly assist in any effort which would contribute to his real good. Victims of the wiles of base men, they are but instruments for ignoble ends. Their ignorance is their weakness, and we pity them. They have chosen their political associations' and we must abide them. The rights their condition demands we would cheerfully grant, but we cannot and will not assist them in their mad effort to outrage nature and common sense by endeavoring to obtain positions which God never intended they should occupy.

We appeal to the white men of the State who may feel indifferent in this matter, by every incentive that can address itself to North Carolinians, to discard the idea that they have no interest in politics. Every man, woman and child within her borders is vitally concerned in the issue of this struggle. Let every man do his full duty, and the result cannot be doubtful.

THE Convention has been engaged for several days in the discussion of the suffrage question, and has not yet reached a vote upon any of the reports submitted by the committee.

Mr. Durham replied to the arguments of the advocates of negro suffrage on Friday night, in a forcible and logical speech of considerable length.

Messrs. Abbott, Heaton and Ashley have attempted replies to his arguments, but have adduced no new reasons for the monstrosity they support.

Discussion by the Radicals was needless, since that was the very issue upon which they were elected. For the sake of the impoverished people of the State, it is to be hoped that it will be speedily disposed of.

THE intelligence from Washington is of quite an interesting character. Mr. Stanton having intrenched business in the War Department, by the aid of Gen. Grant, has refused to obey the order of the President commanding him to surrender its books, records and other property to Gen. Thomas. The question therefore has become one for the interposition of the Courts, which the President desires to obtain. In the meantime Congress has determined upon a retaliatory measure, and a bill impeaching the President was introduced by Mr. Stevens late yesterday afternoon. Our dispatches say that the House will vote on Monday, and that articles of impeachment will certainly be preferred.

THE HAPPY FAMILY,

—OR—

THE CAPITOL MONKEY SHOW!

(BY OUR SPECIAL REPORTER UNDER THE TABLE.)

[The reader is particularly requested to remember the fact that no Reporter for this paper is allowed on the floor, in the halls or in the galleries of the Convention, and consequently our reports are made from under the table, behind the scenes, or as may be otherwise ordered and convenient.]

FRIDAY EVENING, Feb. 21.

The consideration of the report of the committee on Suffrage was resumed, Mr. Rich, of Pitt, being entitled to the floor.

Mr. Rich stated that when he claimed the floor at the morning session he hoped that he would have recovered from a severe hoarseness with which he was suffering, but as he had not done so, he asked that the Secretary might read his speech, which had been so condensed that it would occupy but little of the time of the Convention.

The speech was then read by the Secretary. Mr. Rich, of course, advocated suffrage for the negro, and gave as reasons therefor the arguments that have been used by every radical on the floor, who has spoken on the subject. He differed with many of his party, as to the policy of incorporating a disfranchising clause in the constitution. He deemed a liberal, lenient course advisable as a party measure, and confessed that the opposite policy had led to the defeat of his party in the North. He favored the enfranchisement of all classes, thereby healing divisions and ending strife.

Mr. Durham said that he had determined not to speak upon the subject, as he knew that nothing that he could say would change the views or purposes of the Radical party. The character of the debate had surprised and amused him, inasmuch as it had not been discussed, in a statesmanlike manner, as a matter of public weal, but solely as a means for the advancement of the Republican party. The Radical members of this body had been fattening upon the carcass of the dead "rebellion," and exhibited the wildest alarm when there was not a shadow of danger. If a stranger should enter the hall he would surely imagine that the "dead rebellion" had just commenced, and that these leaders were uttering the rallying cry to crush it. The Conservative members of this Convention, and of the State generally, had been charged with entertaining rebellious feelings, with factious opposition to the government, with opposition to all the "just and magnanimous" laws enacted for their return to the Union. It had become his duty to defend his white constituents and the Conservative gentlemen on the floor from these false charges. He had had the honor (or dishonor, as you like it,) of being a member of the Committee on Suffrage. His convictions had compelled Mr. Graham and himself to offer a minority report, reflective of the sentiments of the honest and intelligent white men of the State.

Mr. Pool, the chairman of the committee, in his remarks a few days since had said that he would divest the report of all its finery. Beginning at the first section he (Pool) had said that he did not wonder that the Conservatives regarded with alarm, the admission to the ballot box of so many ignorant blacks, as they (the Conservatives) knew that their votes would be cast for the Radical party. This was a most flimsy argument. He (Mr. Durham) did not know whether Mr. Pool had owned slaves or not, still he would venture the assertion that Mr. Pool advocated the right of holding slaves six years ago as strongly as any one in the State.

Mr. Durham having most thoroughly ventilated the shallow sophistries of Mr. Pool, proceeded to picture with fidelity the state of affairs in the North, relative to colored suffrage. He asked why Northern Republicans persistently refused the negro, the right of suffrage? They will not accord this right, where it will not subserve party purposes, by making the negroes their tools—laughing in their sleeves at the suppleness and servility of their dupes whom they really regard with disgust.

Mr. Durham, at length, exposed the fallacies advanced by the Republican party on the floor, in support of the constitutionality of the reconstruction acts.

As to conservative members in this Hall having violated their sworn obligations to support the constitution, it was false, unqualifiedly false, for it is you who have done it. We took an oath to support the Constitution of the United States; we did not swear to support Thadeus Stevens and his damnable crew, who boldly declare that the Reconstruction acts are outside of the constitution.

In the conclusion of his speech, only the outlines of which we have given, Capt. Durham said that if any delegate in the hall prosumed to reflect upon the motives or patriotism of the gallant Confederate dead, he would denounce him then and there—anywhere, as a deliberate and infamous liar.

Johnny McDonald, the silly Chatham ass, here jumped up and "pitched into" Capt. Durham, his object evidently being to bring his own insignificant self into notice, by braying at a lion. [It has been very wisely said, that the Crab would never have become a constellation, but for the pertinacity he evinced in nibbling at the heel of Hercules.] He boldly denounced (which he could very safely do, inside the Menagerie,) the participants in the late "rebellion" as traitors and murderers. [Take care Mack, how you talk that way outside the Konvenshun.] He said he had been in the Legislature a great many times—had never lent aid or comfort to the Lost Cause, and would'nt trust those who had.

As usual, he harped extensively on his patriotism and his virtue, [Talk of patriot'sm, preach of virtue, yet league with villians! Thou art a knave, but we will write thee down Ass, Mack!] and finally sat down fully believing that he had made a speech.

Thereupon Capt. Durham arose and quietly remarked that the last speaker was a buffoon, and as such, he was beneath the notice of a gentleman.

Watts then began to reply to Capt. Durham, but, alas! he began to cry too, so he soon slowly sank to his seat sorrowing.

The spirit moved Abbott, the New Hampshire Quaker, next, and arising, he repeated, verbatim, the same old speech, the same "old cannibal tune" with which he had so many times bored his brethren.

Harris, nigger, of Wake, in imitation of his shaking predecessor, declaimed his old speech once more.

French, of Washington city, thought that the varmints were exhausted after their extraordinary antics, and should be permitted to retire to their cages.

Ring-master Kowles concurring, the performance was pronounced over until 10 A. M., tomorrow.

THE JACKALLS AND THE HARPIES.

THIRTY-FOURTH DAY.

SATURDAY, Feb. 22.

Prayer by the Assyrian High Priest, and Haytian Pedagogue, Fiske Brewer.

The ass-anine delegate from Chatham, Mc Donald, made a motion that the performances for the day be dispensed with in honor of Washington's birth-day.

Mr. Forkner moved to amend the motion, by forfeiting the per diem for the day.

Messrs. French, of Chowan, and King, of Lenoir, objected to the adjournment, as they had no idea of losing their eight dollars per diem.

Galloway, (nigger,) favored McDonald's motion. [Not, however, on account of any honor he wished to pay to the memory of Washington, but because the gorillas of Wake intended holding a meeting in Tucker Hall, and it afforded him a double opportunity of exhibiting himself.]

Mr. French, of Chowan, presented a resolution that the body honor the memory of Washington, by proceeding to engraft upon the constitution of the State, the principles of truth and justice which have rendered his name immortal. [An excellent sentiment, Mr. French, but the action of the body gives it the lie, don't it?]

Hood, nigger, favored the resolution, and on his motion the rules were suspended and the resolution adopted.

Mr. Pool moved to suspend the rules and take up the suffrage question.

The motion prevailed.

Mr. Grant, of Wayne, obtained the floor, and spoke for some time in favor of the majority report. He favored universal negro suffrage, but did not wish a constitution adopted partizan in its character. His remarks proved him to be a nigger lover of the regular stamp.

NOTE BY THE REPORTER.

[The performance "drug" heavily, some of the combination being evidently drugged. Peeping out from our place of concealment under the table, we discovered that the official Reporter at a per diem of six dollars was not in his place, but as we subsequently learned had gone to preside at the nigger meeting at Tucker Hall, leaving our African friend, the Egyptian Reporter from Jamaica, to amuse us with his lilliputian feet as usual.

This is all of this highly interesting performance we shall be able to give in this issue of the paper. It will be continued in the North Carolinian, a daily Democratic white man's newspaper, published at the corner of Fayetteville and Hargett streets, Raleigh, N. C., fifth flight, third room, back. If you will send the editor eight dollars he will send you a copy of the paper. Liberal inducements for clubbing—Twenty copies one year for fifty cents.]

STATE EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE.

The gentlemen composing the State Executive Committee, are respectfully requested to meet in this city on Friday, the 28th inst., at 11 o'clock. A full attendance is much desired.

By order of the

CHAIRMAN.

A BAD CAUSE.

Much argument is never required in a good cause, when men have made up their minds to follow it.

But not so with Radical-Republican-negro-equality. The followers and perpetrators of this infamous outrage, require much argument and fine spun theory to convince themselves of its propriety.

Some of the most valuable time of the Convention has been consumed, this week, in discussing the suffrage question. Every Republican member on the floor pledged himself to negro suffrage when he declared himself a candidate, and every one had made up his mind to vote therefor before the assembling of the Convention even. Then whence the necessity for discussing this most odious and outrageous of propositions, except for "buncombe"? But it was discussed (?) nevertheless, and in a manner highly satisfactory to its advocates. The most absurd and impossible propositions have been laid down and proved. For instance, it has been shown that WASHINGTON was in favor of the reconstruction act and its supplements, and that he supported them in 1774 by voting for negro suffrage.

Thomas Jefferson, a Virginia gentleman of some local popularity, and of whom some of our readers may have heard, was also a loyal supporter of reconstruction, the evidence of which is his letter to the Convention, which Mr. Heaton read on the floor.

James Madison is an abolitionist by his own statement, and as shown by Mr. Heaton, has advocated negro suffrage and equality for the last fifty years, and has also written a book to sustain his position. Mr. Heaton exhibited the book, which is an elegantly bound volume, reflecting much credit on the publisher.

Capt. John Smith is proved to have been engaged in the African slave trade, and to have landed on the shores of Virginia, at Jamestown, with a cargo of negroes. Pocahontas, a lovely colored damsel, a favorite of all on board the ship during her homeward passage, Smith designed marrying, but was prevented by the odious "rebel" laws in force at the time, which prohibited the intermarriage of races, a la the Durham amendment.

It is reported of this noble colored girl that she saved the life of Smith at the time he captured and hand-cuffed her father, but notwithstanding her act of "loyalty" and aid to the "reconstruction" of Smith's tobacco farm, the disability of her race and color was not removed, and she died of a broken heart. Perhaps remorse for her father's condition in bondage accelerated the "dart," for according to the rendition of the tragedian of the Cowles combination, her last words were "me fay-ther, me fay-ther, me fay-ther."

But such is history.

LOYAL COMPOSITION.

Native loyal men of North Carolina are composed of the stuff of which heroes are not made.

During the speech of Mr. Durham on suffrage yesterday, Mr. Candler rose to a personal explanation, Mr. Durham, as he thought, having ungenerously reflected upon his course during the war.

Mr. Candler stated that he volunteered in the Confederate army, and became an officer in that service, but that in the course of time he found he was in the "wrong pew." Whereupon he resigned, threw off his military garb, donned the unpretending habiliments of an humble citizen, and—left the country, that is to say, crossed over into the enemy's lines.

Accepting, as they no doubt did, the statement of the young man whose youthful ardor led him into the error of treason, delegates of Northern birth on the floor—those who served in the armies of the Union—did not endeavor to conceal their contempt for the man who could so unblushingly confess his cowardice and perfidy.

We pity the young man. But in justice to those of his party on the floor who are not cowards, and who did not play false to their section, we must state how it was that Mr. Candler came to make the startling discovery that he was in the "wrong pew."

His comrades refused him the promotion of a Major because of COWARDICE.

CITY AND STATE.

The County Republican Convention.

The Black Republicans of the County of Wake assembled at Tucker Hall, yesterday, at 12 o'clock, for the appointment of delegates to the Congressional and State Conventions of the party, to be held in this city on the 26th.

Joseph W. Holden, of the Standard, was appointed President, and Pettifoot, negro, and W. H. Ferrell, negro by brevet, were appointed Secretaries.

The meeting was addressed by W. M. Coleman, Jno. T. Deweese, J. H. Harris and Galloway. We did not hear these speeches.

The committee appointed to nominate candidates for the various offices of the County, reported the following names:

For the Senate, Wiley D. Jones. For the Commons: J. Booker Hutchins, negro, S. D. Franklin, W. S. Mooring and Jos. W. Holden, white. For Sheriff: T. F. Lee; for Superior Court Clerk, J. N. Banting; and for County Court Clerk, W. W. White.

After much angry and excited discussion, which indicated dissatisfaction on the part of the negroes, because of the undue proportion of brevets on the ticket, the report of the committee was finally accepted, and the persons, or rather things named, were declared the nominees of the party for the respective positions to which they were designated.

Delegates to the Conventions were then appointed. Col. Jno. T. Deweese then arose and announced that he had recently honored Gen. U. S. Grant by calling on him while on a visit to Washington. In the conversation which ensued, Gen. Grant told him to make a constitution giving the negroes equal rights. Col. Deweese alluded to Andrew Johnson's, whom he characterized as a poor, miserable, cur, "brutal assault" upon the General, and stated that he and all good republicans would believe the soldier before the President. He wished this Convention to express its preference for Grant for President, which it did.

Mr. Wilie D. Jones, late Major of the 31st N. C. V., who got a surfeit of fighting at Roanoke Island, in response to calls, went upon the stage and accepted the nomination. He promised the party, if it would stand by him as he would stand by the party, that he would carry Wake by the largest majority ever known here. He said "if the copperhead-secesh-Conservative party triumphs, there would be another war more bloody than the last."

Speeches were made by Franklin and Lee.—The former contended that the objection made to the ticket for the Commons, that there were three whites and only one negro on it, was not valid, if the charge made against him by his opponents last fall was true, since he was then called a negro, and the ticket balanced. In all but colthe community will give Mr. Franklin the full benefit of the claim.

Tim Lee returned his thanks for this mark of respect from the "lie-all" people of the county. He favored "innewvations." The nomination was equivalent to an election. He said the next campaign was the most "momentious" the people had ever known. He was opposed to "arristocracy" and to "oilygarchs," and urged his hearers to work.

The meeting then adjourned, Franklin having driven most of the negroes out of the hall when he began to speak.

The Twenty-Second of February.

This anniversary of the birth of a once noble countryman of ours, was not observed in this city—not even by the loyal Convention.

We designed writing something on this great day, but after the display of historic knowledge in the Convention, and taking the authority of Hood, the Egyptian historian, we begin to fear very seriously whether Washington was born on the twenty-second of February, or any other day.

In the Convention a delegate desired to know of the chair if the day was not a legalized holiday in the United States? Mr. President Cowles replied that he did not know, but there was certainly no mention made of it in the Reconstruction Acts of Congress, and consequently he thought the day should be ignored by the Convention, which was "did."

In the name of the good people of the United States we thank the Convention of North Carolina for not dishonoring this great day by observing it.

Watts the Matter.

Thoughout his tirade and abuse of Southern heroes, statesmen, soldiers and gentlemen, Col. Samuel Watts, of Martin, was particularly reticent, reserved and scarce, as to the part he took in the "rebellion."

He said nothing whatever of having acted as spy and pilot for "rebel" scouts, though he was severe on the scouts themselves. There is a gentleman in this city, a late Captain, so-called, Mr. Watts knows well, and whose company he remembers having piloted to a point occupied by yankees, fully as well as the Captain and company remember the speed which the valiant Colonel made when the "ball opened." He too found himself in the "wrong pew," and when twelve hours after he was taken out of a flowing ditch, in an insensible and benumbed condition, the army felt that it had found Holden's "last man," and "in the last ditch."

Shall Be Heard From.

During the deliberations of the "black and tan" meeting in Tucker's Hall yesterday, Jos. W. Holden, one of the candidates for the Commons, was called on by exactly thirty-seven negroes, and seven brevet negroes for a speech. He excused himself by promising that his colleagues and himself should be "heard from" on the stump during the campaign.

We promise the "Cub," on behalf of the Wake County Canvassers, that his colleagues and himself shall be heard of from the stump in a manner not quite creditable to them.

Abusing the President.

Col. Deweese, a register in bankruptcy, of this city, was, we understand, very coarse and vulgar in his abuse of President Johnson, in a speech before the county, (nigger) meeting yesterday.

A man who voluntarily associates himself with a wooer, seducer and ravisher of negro women, is a very fit person to abuse, slander and traduce Andrew Johnson, in the city of his birth, and as Josh Billings said when he dedicated "his book" to his uncle, Deacon Uriah Billings, "may he have the strength tu stand it."

In Transitu.

The Honorable Impeacher Ashley is expected in this city to-night, and will probably ignite the "loyal," so to speak, with his fiery eloquence, on Monday, at Tucker Hall.

Ber-Luddy!

Col. John T. Dewese, in his speech in the negro meeting yesterday, was hugely bellicose. He declared that if the Democrats and Conservatives of the North and South, should obtain control of the Government, and deny the negro suffrage there would be another revolution, which would deluge the land in blood, and that he was ready, in such an event, to take up arms for the negro. Is this the reason why Col. Deweese did Gen. Grant the honor to engage in conversation with him during the former's late visit to Washington?

Infernally Black.

Wm. S. Mooring, a scallawag candidate for the House of Commons, created quite a stir in the black and tan convention, several of the negroes objecting to the preponderance of whites on the ticket made thereby. One delegate stated his objection to be Mooring's color. In response to a desire to know his sentiments, the scallawag went on the stage and said: He fully acquiesced in the Radical principles. As to his color the convention could see that for itself. Not so, Mr. Mooring. The black part of you is all inside, and devilishly black it is, in the bargain.

Death of an Estimable Lady.

With sincere sorrow we announce the death, at her residence in the county of Rutherford, on the instant, of Mrs. Esther McDowell Durham, mother of Capt. Plato Durham, of Cleaveland.

Mrs. Durham has been for many years a sufferer from disease of the heart, but her death was unexpected to her friends and family. She was about 53 years of age at the time of her decease.

The many friends of Capt. Durham will sincerely sympathise with him in his bereavement. He has and deserves their confidence and affection.

The Warrenton Indicator.

We respectfully invite the attention of our readers to the prospectus of the Indicator, a weekly newspaper published at Warrenton, N. C., by W. F. Williams, proprietor, and edited by the Rev. T. B. Kingsbury. The editor of the Indicator is well known to the reading public in North Carolina from his connection with the "Leisure Hour," a first class literary weekly issued at Oxford before the war. He is one of the most scholarly writers in the State, and the Indicator under his management should number its readers by thousands.

Yesterday.

At precisely 10 o'clock, A. M., yesterday, three years ago, the Federal troops, in the wildest excitement, began to pour into the streets of Wilmington-on-the-Cape-Fear. Just one hour before the above occurred, this Local, sullen, solitary and alone, but undismayed, retired in perfect order from the same city in the direction of Bentonville.

We simply mention the above facts for the benefit of the future historian.

Another Example of Social Equality.

Galloway, claybank, and the Ex. P. G. walked straight down Fayetteville street yesterday morning, firmly locked in loving embrace, and entering a bar-room, called for drinks, which, after mutual and reciprocal toasts, they swallowed with much gusto.

We deem it unnecessary to add that it was Galloway's "treat."

The Noble Red Man.

Two Indians (not taxed) were in the lobby of the Convention yesterday during the debate on suffrage.

We are gratified to be able to state that the loyalists therein succeeded in thoroughly disgusting them.

"A Real Nigger Man."

Mr. McDonald, delegate from Chatham to the nigger Convention, said in the Radical pow wow on yesterday, that he came there to be a real nigger man. We were aware that Mack had been breveted to that position some time since.

The Charlotte Bulletin of Friday contained a call signed by Messrs. Z. B. Vance, J. W. Osborne, H. C. Jones, J. H. Wilson, John A. Young and Wm. Johnston, requesting the citizens of Charlotte and vicinity, especially the young men, to meet last night for the organization of a White Man's Club.

The good work goes bravely on. Let every town and city in the State follow the example of Charlotte.

40 YEARS.

DEEMS' Southern Hepatic Pills, are made and sold by the discoverer, that old and well-tried remedy for all diseases caused by DISEASED LIVER, which is attended with all the symptoms of Consumptions. In 1825 the Discoverer was reduced to a mere skeleton, and was pronounced by three of the most skillful physicians of one of our largest cities, to be in an advanced stage of Consumption, and beyond cure. He then began to try experiments on himself, and after many efforts discovered (by the help of an Indian) the remedy which wrought in him a perfect cure. He is now in the 78th year of his age, and at this advanced stage of life retains an excellent constitution. In 32 years itinerating in the ministry, he has seen more than a thousand persons, who were given up to die of Consumption as beyond cure, dragging out a miserable existence, not knowing what ailed them, they were cured by these Hepatic Pills, and afterwards enjoyed the most perfect health.

There is in these Pills a peculiar combination with an article which has probably never before been used as a medicine. They are highly strengthening, and mild in their action on the bowels. In the preparation of these very superior and excellent Pills, no cost or trouble is spared to insure the greatest possible degree of perfection, in point of utility, excellence and comfort; the advantage in these Pills, therefore, is that a cure must be radical and complete, without the necessity of incorporating such drugs into our Pills as to break down the system in one part to remove the disease in another, and leave the patient to groan under worse diseases than heretofore. Where these Pills are known, especially in the Southern States, where they have been used so extensively, they need no recommendation, their merits are so well known by their results, which has given them a reputation that has brought them into great demand. They are therefore destined to be, at no distant day, the only remedy recognized and used by the people where billious diseases are so prevalent.

They can be sent to any point in the United States by mail or express.

Price—25 cents per box, $2 50 per doz. By the gross, $18. The cash must either accompany the order for the Medicine, or it will be sent C. O. D. Address

In a Beautiful Country.

BY ASBURY.

I am weary and tired of staying here,
Where hearts are so selfish and cold!
Is there not a race on the earth somewhere
That makes not an idol of gold?
Is there not a place where the heart can be
Secure from the rust of pride?
Some quiet retreat, some isle in the sea,
Where gentle ones only abide?

Weary soul, methinks I hear a voice say,
There is no such place as you name;
No faultless abode, no place we can stray,
And have nothing that's sinful to blame;
No pleasant retreat is there on the earth,
No beautiful isle we can find,
Where pride and selfishness has no birth,
And ALL are true-hearted and kind.

Then let us bear with the world as it is,
Nor murmur with things as they are;
A world that is erring and changing like this
Cannot always seem lively and fair;
But when earth-life and its sorrows are o'er,
In a beautiful country above,
We'll dwell with spirits immortal and pure,
Forever in quiet and love.

Interesting to Tobacco Planters.

The advance in tobacco within the past week has been fully two dollars per hundred; and the opinion of intelligent merchants is that prices will be very high in the spring, when the best descriptions are brought to market. And in order that planters may reap the full reward of their labors, the following remarks are respectfully but earnestly submitted to their consideration and guidance. In former times they might have been deemed unnecessary; but since the war the management of this important staple has often been extremely negligent. In a single crop of twenty-five or thirty hogsheads, or even less, it is very practicable to divide it in distinct grades, and prize it accordingly. But in a small crop this cannot be so readily done. The consequence is that a hogshead, mostly of good, may require to be filled up with a hundred or a hundred and fifty pounds of inferior. When this is offered for sale, the price is governed in a great measure by what the inferior portion is worth.

In cases like this, it is desirable that several small planters in the same neighborhood should join together. Or it may happen that a landholder has rented land to several parties—freedmen for instance. By making a large crop (so to say) out of several small ones, the aggregate proceeds would be enhanced at least fifty per cent. Every hogshead might be made of the required weight, which is a matter of more importance than is generally considered. And here it may be stated that a hogshead of shipping tobacco should weigh as nearly as possible 1,450 pounds, and a hogshead of manufacturing 1,250 pounds. Particular attention should also be paid to the condition of the cask; that is, the timber, both for staves and heading, ought to be thoroughly seasoned. A wet or damp head-board will affect the contents to the depth of six or twelve inches, producing mould and decay, in warm weather, in a very short time. Perhaps there is no plant in the world so susceptible to atmospheric changes as tobacco in the cured state. All these rules we see utterly ignored almost every day at the warehouses, thereby causing an incalculable loss, in the aggregate, to planters.

Another precaution to be observed is to let the tobacco remain hanging in the barns till the middle of April. In cold weather it can never be struck down and placed in bulk with any safety. This can only be done in mild, settled weather. We beg the planter's strict attention to these suggestions, the observance of which will secure to him the most satisfactory prices when he brings his crop to market in May and June.—Petersburg Correspondence of Rich. Dispatch.

A Pastoral Letter Concerning American Women.

Bishop Arthur Cleveland Coxe, of New York, has issued a pastoral letter in relation to American women, in which he discourseth as follows. It will no doubt strike home to many an American household:

When I see the tawdry fashions, the costly vulgarity and the wicked extravagance of the times, I feel sure that thousands of American women are strangers to the first law of refinement—simplicity in manners and attire. When I see that thousands of American women read the most shameful romances and the most degrading newspapers, frequent the vilest dramatic entertainments and join in dances too shocking to be named among Christians, I feel that Christian matrons are becoming too few, and that civilized heathenism is returning to the fields we have wrested from the Indians. When I read daily of the most ungodly divorces, and of crimes against social purity and against human life itself, which are too gross to be mentioned more particularly, I feel that too many of our countrywomen are without God in the world, and that radical reforms are necessary in the systems of education on which the young women of America are dependent for their training. When I see thousands of households in which young girls are reared for a life of pleasure without reference to duty, I cannot wonder at these results, nor at the misery in which they involve families and communities. So the wind and reap the whirlwind.

As a Christian bishop, therefore, I make my appeal to you, Christian women, and I ask you to begin the reformation by faithfully bearing your testimony against all that tends to the degradation of your sex, and the more so when such crime is not only winked at, but receives countenance in circles which ought to be exemplary.

Ten-Pins.

An incident recently occurred at Yale which, we think, goes very far to establish as a fact that "the world moves." A Yale alumnus of twenty years' standing, recently returned, after a long absence, to visit his alma mater, and was very courteously received and "shown round" by Professor T——. After having exhibited to his guest all the modern improvements, the Professor said to him:

"You have now seen, I believe, all that is new in the institution, except the gymnasium. Come, let's go up there, and I will roll a string of ten pins with you."

"What, sir!" exclaimed the guest, starting back in real or simulated astonishment.

"Why," exclaimed the Professor, "we have a fine alley in our gymnasium, and I would like to go there and roll a string of ten pins with you."

"Ten-pins," cried the alumnus, with a gleam of malicious fun in his eye, "why, sir, I was expelled from the college for rolling ten-pins!"

The Hardening Process.

"Right or wrong, deservedly or undeservedly, most of us have at different crises of our lives, known this feeling—the bitter sense of being wronged; of having opened one's heart to the sunshine and had it all blighted and blackened with frost; of having laid one's self down in a passion of devotedness, for beloved feet to walk upon, and been trampled upon, and beaten down to the dust."—Miss Mulock's "Noble Life."

A man who had filed a petition for divorce was informed by his counsel that his wife had filed a "cross-petition," as lawyers call it. "A cross-petition!" exclaimed the husband, "that just like her. She never did a good-natured thing in her life."

The New York Evening Mail wickedly says: Albany Medical College has sent forth thirty-four new physicians to desolate homes which now are happy.

ROSADALIS WILL CURE THE WORST CASES OF SCROFULA. READ THE STATEMENT BELOW, AND DESPAIR NOT.

WILSON COUNTY, Sept. 10, 1867.

DR. J. J. LAWRENCE:

Dear Sir—My youngest daughter, aged five years, has been dreadfully afflicted with Scrofula nearly all her life. I tried a great many Physicians, but without relieving her much; in fact, most of them said there was no hope of cure.—During the last Spring she was worse than ever, her body and limbs being covered with sores and blotches—with face and eyes badly ulcerated and swollen. Whilst in this condition, I was advised by Dr. L. A. Stith to try your Rosadalis. I at once procured three bottles, and commenced giving it to her. The effect was magical. In less than a month, to my great astonishment, she was entirely well.

I am, sir,
Yours, with respect and gratitude,

He has been afflicted with an inveterate and extremely troublesome Eruption of the Skin, sometimes breaking out in sores, &c. Rosadalis was prescribed by my family physician—Dr. A. D. Moore. After taking it a few weeks, my son became and remains entirely well.

Yours truly,
J. B. DANIEL.

LATEST NEWS TO THE FARMERS OF North Carolina.

Your attention is called to my large stock of Agricultural Implements, Iron Steel, &c., &c.

Corn and Cotton Planters, Corn Shellers, Hay, Shuck and Corn Stalk Cutters, Fan Mills, Plows, of every kind, Harrows and Cultivators, Spades, Shovels
Forks, Brier Hooks,
Iron Axles, Springs,
Cart & Wagon
Boxes, &c.

I call particular attention to BILLUP'S CENTREBOARD COTTON SCRAPER, and to BILLUP'S DIXIE PLOW. The first is warranted to be the best Scraper ever yet invented, and the Farmers are requested to test its merits in connection with any other kind. The Dixie Plow is freer from choking than any other yet made; will pass through the ground with less power, and do better work than any other kind. This is no vain boast. 'Tis easy to claim superiority; hence I ask a trial.

If Farmers are not satisfied, the money will be refunded.
